DEVELOPING LAUGH LINES

The minister of the church was ill one Sunday morning, so a fill-in preacher was called. In his opening remarks, the preacher said, "You know, a substitute preacher is like a piece of cardboard in a broken window. He fills the space, but after all, he's not the real glass."

After the service, a lady approached the preacher trying to pay him a compliment. "You weren't a replacement after all. You were a real pane."

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

Let's continue to seek God's guidance in sending us a minister, and for the search committee and for our elders.

Helen Coburn has not had to undergo surgery for the break in her left arm, but will be in a sling for the next month or so. Please keep her in your prayers.

David McDowell's neck surgery was Friday, April 1. Be praying for a quick and full recovery for Dave.

Jonny Mueller, the Potters' grandson, has a heart murmur the doctors are watching closely. He has an appointment with a specialist in St. Louis on April 12. If he does not grow out of it by the time he is 4 or 5, surgery may be necessary. Please pray that he grows out of it without any intervention needed.

Dave Hardesty's uncle, Sonny, is home but will still need some tests run. Please keep him and the family in your prayers.

Sara Tarr, a relative of Mark McAllister, is in the hospital with high blood pressure issues following the birth of her baby. Please remember her in prayer.

Brian Stevens, a friend of the Hardestys, found that his brain tumor is malignant and stage 4. He will be undergoing Gamma Radiation therapy. Please pray for him.
